INDEPENDENT, ORIGINAL BATTLE
Wander along the High Street or delve into the ‘twitters’ in Battle and you’ll soon find the spirit of independence is alive and well in its many boutique businesses and shops. Pick up unique, handcrafted gifts or noodles and wood to make your own; enjoy home-made cakes or a meal of local produce; satisfy your inner bookworm at the bookstore or sip champagne while enjoying a cut throat shave. Our High Street is full of surprises.

BATTLE’S GREAT OUTDOORS
March across the battlefield on which England’s fate was decided in 1066 or trek along the 1066 Country Walk path from Battle Abbey gates for a 6 mile circular through spectacular countryside and ancient woodland. Play hide-and-seek in Battle Great Wood then take the children to the playground at the ‘Tea’. Round off your day in Battle’s Almoiny Gardens or by watching cricket, glass in hand, at the town’s 280 year old club.

BATTLE TOWNS MAP

Unfolding England’s story
Named to commemorate the most famous conflict on English soil, this compact market town grew up alongside the 1066 battle site, tranquil medieval abbey and surrounding ancient woodlands – largely unchanged to this day. Throughout the centuries we’ve hosted Normans and Saxons, gunpowder plotters and rock stars. You’ll want to stay longer too. Beautiful, big-hearted Battle. It’s yours to conquer.
